CKI & STUFH: What You ALWAYS Wanted to Know

November 2009

Greetings CKI!

What you need to know about Students Team Up to Fight Hunger (STUFH):

- Campus wide food drives
- Combat hunger and increase awareness of hunger in local communities
- Target audience - our college students
- Started at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY campus in 1999

How to get started:

- Contact Program Director Dan Kahn at dkahn@stufh.org or (518) 506-5491. List your college, geographic location, and dates of your final semester week.
- Arrangements will be made to connect you and your college with your local food bank.
- Time and location will be set for drop-off and pick-up of food bins.

Start a food fight:

- For the football or basketball season (also any other popular sports)
- Challenge another university to raise the most pounds of food
- Place donation bins around your campus and at major sporting events
- Try and get the local community involved
- Beat your rival!

After the food fight:

- Arrange appropriate arrangements to have the food collected dropped off or picked up for the benefiting food bank
- Write a letter to the editor to your local and campus paper to thank everyone who participated
- Take photos and submit them to ckimagazine@kiwanis.org and dkahn@stufh.org

Yours,

Toby Markham
