

Better World Books & the Kiwanis Family:
working together for one cause

When most people think Better World Books, they think of college campuses.
But there are several ways to get the Kiwanis family involved!

In honor of Kiwanis Family Month, here are five great ways:

- 1) Invite your Kiwanis and Key club members to help plan, put up posters and organizing collection bins around campus!
- 2) Ask your Kiwanis club if they have any college books (textbooks, even college novels such as "Gone with the Wind"). You can also check with college professors that have some older books they're willing to donate!
- 3) Ask Key Club members to go back to their families and siblings and ask if they have college books within 5-10 years old with an ISBN that they're willing to donate.
- 4) Promote the "CircleK" discount with Kiwanians and Key Club members for all of their book buying needs. Because they are part of the Kiwanis Family, they also qualify for the 10% discount!
- 5) Once the book drive is complete, you have $50 to spend on a packing party. Take this opportunity to have a Kiwanis-Family interclub and invite Kiwanis and Key club to help out and have fun!
