CKI PITTSBURGH GUIDE

PITTSBURGH FUN FACTS

Bridge capital: Pittsburgh is home to over 440 bridges — more bridges than any other city in the world, including Venice, Italy.

Home of the first movie theater: The world's first movie theater, the Nickelodeon, opened in Pittsburgh in 1905.

Iconic food: The famous Primanti Bros. sandwich, piled high with fries and coleslaw, was originally created for truckers needing a quick, hearty meal.

GETTING AROUND PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh offers a range of easy and affordable ways to get around. The city is known for its walkability. Our hotel, EVEN Hotel Pittsburgh Downtown, is conveniently located just a 15-minute walk from the David L. Lawrence Convention Center, with plenty of nearby restaurants, shops and attractions to explore along the way.

For those flying in, getting to the hotel from Pittsburgh International Airport is straightforward. The Pittsburgh Regional Transit's 28X Airport Flyer bus provides a direct route to downtown, with a travel time of about 50 minutes, for just US$2.75, making it a budget-friendly option. For routes and schedules, check the Pittsburgh Regional Transit's official site. Greyhound offers another option for travel to Pittsburgh: A Greyhound bus station is located next to the convention center.

Pittsburgh also provides a variety of public transportation options, including buses and light rail, to help you explore the city. A day pass using Pittsburgh Regional Transit is just US$7. If you're looking for faster or more direct transportation, Uber and Lyft also are widely available in Pittsburgh. Ridesharing can be a convenient way to navigate the city, especially for trips outside the downtown area or late-night outings.
