By running for office or thoughtfully participating in the election process as a voting delegate, you help ensure CKI remains true to its democratic principles and is stronger for future generations of students. This packet informs the CKI electorate of this year's candidates for international office and their platforms.

Candidate Information

District: Ohio

Candidate for: International President

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Serving as the CKI Vice President and as the previous Governor of the Ohio District has given me a deep understanding of how to empower clubs and members throughout our organization. I've learned that the best way to support our leaders is through active listening and open communication by developing practical tools so clubs can access support quickly. This year, I organized standardized training for District Executives and the International Committees, and implemented feedback from throughout the year to improve the experiences for these leaders. As president, I will carry forward the successes of our organization this year by maintaining the relationships I have built with each district governor and creating inclusive spaces to foster innovation across our organization.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I'll build strong, trusting relationships with governors, trustees, and club leaders by creating spaces for open dialogue. I want to empower each of our districts to lead with confidence, and I was able to do this by organizing forums for district executives to connect and share ideas. As President, I will publish a monthly International President's update and host the monthly Governor's Forums featuring a spotlight governor and district breakout sessions for deeper discussion. Throughout the year, trustees will conduct progress check-ins from each district's strategic roadmap and utilize a club health dashboard to recognize active clubs and provide resources for clubs that need more support. I'll continuously implement feedback and advocate for each district's needs while championing the members we all serve.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

To grow CKI, we must focus on empowering members and supporting sustainable club growth. I will build upon the strategic roadmaps each governor created during GATC, and will promote new strategies to charter new clubs and retain members. I will also encourage stronger connections with Key Club by promoting local service projects and early outreach. In each of these strategies, social media will play a key role, and I will utilize customizable campaigns that promote the impact and value of CKI to drive interest within each of our existing and prospective CKI clubs. Growth begins on each campus and can only be developed when each CKI club has a culture of belonging and is a space where all members can lead, serve, and thrive.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

I've served at the club, district, and international levels, and I'm ready to use the lessons I've learned on a larger scale. As the Ohio District Governor, I led membership growth during a dues increase by strengthening communication and empowering club leaders. As International Vice President, I built committees, improved transparency, and turned feedback into action. At the international level, I will bring this same energy and strategy and will be an advocate for the people I serve, so every district benefits from our best practices. Circle K International has helped me grow into the leader I am today, and I want to give back to our members so that they have the same pride in our organization as I do.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could only accomplish one thing, it would be to see an increase in service across the organization through increased membership. Expanding CKI's impact starts at the club level, and I want everyone to feel supported as they grow in membership and impact. I'll achieve this by working with district leaders to expand service opportunities and develop customized growth plans to increase membership. When clubs are thriving, members feel empowered, and the community sees our impact. Increasing membership means strengthening our foundation for the future of CKI, and its unique value amongst other student organizations on each campus. My goal is to leave each club with stronger systems, clearer communication, and lasting momentum so they can continue growing and serving beyond my term.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

From my time as NC State CKI Club President, I learned the importance of resilience through action. Our club faced leadership gaps, financial instability, and limited student government support. I leaned on my other officers and our members to keep pushing forward. We eventually rebuilt a full board, secured a bank account, and reconnected with our Kiwanis Club for support. As District Governor, I've seen that same resilience across our organization and learned that it thrives when leaders feel supported. I plan to be more hands-on with the current governor class to ensure they feel empowered to serve their districts. This includes a streamlined monthly Governors Forum that shifts from reminders and reiterations into a real-time support meeting equipping governors to succeed.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I plan to support and collaborate across all levels of CKI by prioritizing achievement and the power of our membership. As an education student, I've studied culturally responsive strategies and rapport-building techniques that center people's experiences and motivations. I will apply this from our club recruitment training sessions to international social events, and everything in between. I will also implement a "Stay for Something" framework, encouraging clubs to identify a key experience, connection, or purpose for each new member to ensure lasting engagement. I will work closely with Kiwanis partners to strengthen collaboration through emerging and continued support. I want every member to feel seen, supported, and connected so they don't just join our organization, but truly collaborate within it.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

To encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level, I would focus on building systems that support members at every stage of their journey. That starts with expanding access through district-wide e-clubs, creating clear pathways into CKI from Key Club. I will also launch a new, relevant media initiative to support current members by elevating their stories and expand our reach to Key Club members and beyond. I will also work to overhaul our elections to ensure current members feel invested in our leadership, and therefore more invested in the organization. Sustainability comes from strong foundations, so I will support the development of at least one new CKI-affiliated Kiwanis Club per CKI district to ensure there is room for CKI growth and sponsorship.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

From my time as a Freshman Representative in Key Club to serving as CKI District Governor, I've been shaped by the leaders who came before me. These individuals offered their wisdom beyond any required threshold. They consistently helped me grow into each role, making me the leader I am today. Serving on the International Board is my opportunity to return that same commitment on a larger scale as an advocate for growth. As International President, I want to fight for every club, district, and international board member to reach their full potential, rather than settle for what is comfortable or expected. To me, there is nothing more reflective of our organization than rising to the challenge and serving as many people as possible.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

As Vice Chair of the International Committee on Membership Development and Education, we put together monthly socials that proved our members are passionate about connecting with one another. If there is only one thing I could accomplish, it would be to find better solutions for attendance at in-person events like our International Convention and the Governor-Administrator Training Conference. Having the greatest possible attendance at these events means full participation from our organization. Making these events cheaper to attend, and by extension more easily accessible for our members, will ensure the connections continue to happen. Greater connection is the first step in innovation, creativity, and real change that can prove our passion and worth to anyone who doubts Circle K International.

Candidate Questionnaire

Candidate Information

Name: Ananya Bommineni

District: Michigan

Candidate for: International Vice President

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Through my experience at the club, district, and international levels, I have learned that strong leadership is rooted in support and clarity. As a club president, I saw how clear expectations and communication help keep members engaged. As district treasurer, I learned that accessible resources can make a significant difference in how confident club officers feel in their roles. Serving on an international committee showed me how important it is for committees to have structure and direction, and that experience will guide me as I oversee the international committees. In this role, I want to apply these lessons by strengthening communication, improving resources, and ensuring members feel supported in their positions.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I plan to create an open line of communication between International and our members through a feedback form and regular office hours where members can sign up to meet with me one-on-one. I also want to help district officers connect with others in the same role across districts. When I served as district treasurer, I created resources for my clubs, but later realized similar materials already existed elsewhere. By sharing resources, possibly through a shared drive, we can avoid duplicating work and focus more on service. My goal is to make collaboration easier and more effective across all levels.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

I believe retention starts with connection. When members feel engaged and included, they are more likely to stay involved. I want to strengthen communication between International and clubs through consistent outreach. This includes short video messages from the President and Vice President that districts can share at events, as well as a regular International newsletter with updates and resources. I also recognize that membership growth is closely tied to dues. My experience as a District Treasurer will help me support District Treasurers in communicating the value of dues so clubs can continue to grow and sustain their impact.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

After my term as District Governor, I was frequently asked why I didn't pursue an International position, but rather a club one. I chose to return to my home club and run for President because I saw a need for change and knew I could make it happen. I worked to rebuild and strengthen the club, and that experience gave me a deeper understanding of what club leaders need from International. Now, I feel ready to take what I have learned and apply it on a larger scale. After serving in multiple roles across CKI, I have developed a strong understanding of the organization and how to navigate leadership at each level. I want to use that experience to better support clubs and districts.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could accomplish one thing, it would be strengthening support for clubs so they can grow and expand their service. Clubs are the foundation of our organization, and their success shapes our overall impact. When clubs have the resources and guidance they need, members feel more confident and engaged. This leads to stronger retention and more meaningful service in our communities. By focusing on supporting clubs, we can create lasting growth across the entire organization.

Candidate Questionnaire

Candidate Information

Name: Brandon Denson

District: Georgia

Candidate for: International Vice President

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Through my experiences serving at all levels, I have learned that consistency in communication drives real impact. It's not enough to be a goal-setter; leaders need a structured space to share progress, ideas, and challenges. Accessibility matters, whether that is late-night correspondence to work through an idea or a guiding hand. Leaders who feel supported and heard will show up stronger and better prepared to succeed. In this role, I plan to implement intentional check-ins, progress toward a clearer resource pipeline, and create a culture of accountability that is collaborative. Most importantly, leadership isn't just about directing; it is about empowering others to confidently lead that will impact everyone's future.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I firmly believe that support begins with presence. I intend to be consistently available amongst all levels by creating touchpoints, whether that is monthly meetings with committee leaders or the bi-monthly meetings with governors. Our collaboration will focus on connection, not just coordination. If we are able to properly encourage shared ideas, highlight successes, and create opportunity for engagement, we will be able to bridge the gaps on all levels of CKI. I understand that each leader operates differently, and I believe that if I foster open connection, I would be able to build relationships that make collaboration natural, not forced.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

Both sustainability and growth deviate from intentional engagement and clear expectations. Through my L.I.E.F. approach (Leaders Impacting Every Future) I would focus on empowering leaders so that they feel deeply connected to service, leadership, and community. The more passion each trustee, governor, or club officer shows for CKI, the more likely general members are to understand why we fell in love with this organization. This includes promoting scalable service initiatives, highlighting impact stories, and updating resources to be more accessible and relevant across all districts. By equipping leaders with clarity, tools, and confidence, we create an environment where membership not only grows, but remains engaged, invested, and inspired long-term.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

Serving on the International Board gives me an opportunity that club and district levels cannot offer, the chance to impact our system, not just one community. My experiences have been built upon interdistrict communication, whether that was collaborating with the International Board or gaining ideas from fellow Service Programs and Partners committee members. I want to strengthen those connections on a larger scale, ensuring leaders, regardless of their location, can feel supported, informed, and empowered. While club and district roles focus on direct impact, the International Board shapes how that impact becomes possible. I am pursuing this role to empower leaders so they can impact every future and create lasting, meaningful change across our organization.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could accomplish one thing, it would be creating a lasting culture where every leader understands the impact they have on others. I want leaders to be able to recognize that their actions influence not just their club, but the future of the organization. When that mindset is present, service becomes more meaningful and leadership becomes more intentional. Through the belief that leaders are impacting every future, I aim to reinforce a sense of purpose in every role. This kind of cultural shift will create a legacy that extends beyond one term and will continue to shape CKI through stronger leaders, deeper connections, and a more unified organization.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Through chartering my home club and serving as District Governor, I have learned that strong organizations rely on clear structure and intentional leadership. I have seen how defined expectations, consistent communication, and accessible resources directly impact a team's ability to succeed. I have also learned the importance of adaptability; every club and district operates differently, and leadership must reflect those unique needs. As International Vice President, I will apply these lessons by strengthening organizational structure, ensuring clarity in expectations, and providing leaders with the tools they need to succeed in their roles.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I plan to support and collaborate by creating consistent opportunities for connection across all levels of CKI. This includes facilitating regular check-ins with International Committees and Governors, as well as maintaining open channels for feedback and discussion. At the club and district level, I will prioritize accessibility, ensuring leaders know where to find support, resources, and guidance when they need it. Effective collaboration requires both communication and follow-through, and I will work to ensure that ideas, feedback, and concerns are not only heard but acted upon.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

Sustainability begins with strong foundations. I would focus on developing clear transition processes and maintaining resources that allow clubs and districts to operate consistently year-to-year. To support membership growth, I will prioritize realistic recruitment and retention strategies at the club level, while also strengthening the Key Club to CKI pipeline through joint initiatives and targeted outreach. By focusing on both structure and member experience, we can build growth that is sustainable, rather than short-term.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

Serving on an International Committee broadened my perspective on CKI and allowed me to better understand the organization beyond my own district. Through this experience, I saw how decisions made at the international level directly impact clubs and leaders across all districts. Combined with my experience as District Governor, this has encouraged me to pursue leadership at a broader scale, where I can support members and address challenges I have seen across different areas of the organization. I am motivated to serve on the International Board because it provides the opportunity to create meaningful impact beyond a single district.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could accomplish one thing, it would be to improve the clarity and accessibility of support provided to leaders across CKI. When expectations, resources, and communication are clear, leaders are better equipped to succeed and support their members. This creates a stronger and more consistent experience across clubs and districts. By focusing on clarity and accessibility, we can strengthen the foundation of our organization and ensure leaders at every level are set up for success.

Candidate for: International Vice President

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

One of the most important lessons I've learned through my experiences in CKI is the importance of recognizing and supporting the leadership present at all levels. I know how it feels to struggle as the president of a brand-new club, or as the governor of a provisional district. While areas of our organization can face hardships, there are always incredible leaders who are there to overcome them, so the more we can do to find and empower those leaders, the stronger we all can be as an organization.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I believe the heart of our organization exists at the club level, and that's where a lot of my focus exists. No matter our position, we all have a home club at the end of the day, and so I hope to support the club experience by providing all members with some club focused engagement programs with international partners and international leadership. At the district level, I hope to transform international support into being intentional and tailored to individual district needs. At the international level, I hope to open up leadership opportunities to all members, taking pressure off international board members while allowing for more experiences to influence our organization's direction.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

I believe in order to grow our organization, we need to take bold steps while meeting members where they are. I think changes need to be taken to better support struggling districts, like removing restrictions on provisional districts and the possibility of being undistricted. I also believe that our organization needs to have more resources available to individuals who are in the process of chartering a new club. By giving district leaders clear resources and guides that they can provide to potential club leadership as to what it looks like to go through chartering, we can overcome a lot of the anxiety and difficulty that comes along with that process.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

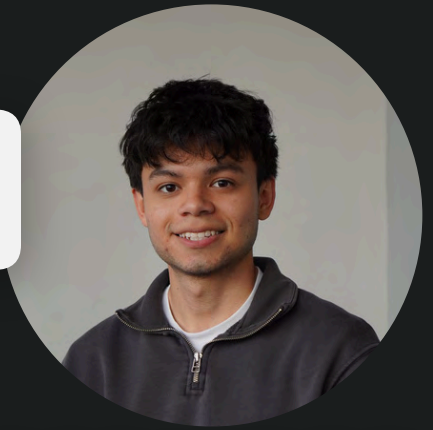

Through my time in CKI, I have had the pleasure of serving as the head of both my club board and district board, and those experiences have shaped my hopes for our organization today. Since the moment I joined CKI, I have had to work tirelessly to remain a part of it. From chartering and keeping my home club membership up, to bringing my district out of provisional status, I have faced the brunt of a lot of the issues challenging our organization today. It's for this reason that I'm inclined to run for international office. I hope to use my experiences to represent the many members of our organization who often don't get a seat at the table, and to bring about bold changes to support them and all members.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

So long as I grow our organization's membership, I would be content. The reality is that our organization needs to grow in order to be sustainable. If we continue to lose members, the hard work so many leaders have done would be lost, and so by working towards growth, I believe we set our organization up for the best possibility for success.

GESAR ARRIOJAS OCAMPO

Hello CKI!

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

A key lesson I have learned from my time in CKI is the importance of reliability. It is easy to become overwhelmed by the commitments we balance alongside our CKI roles, but I have come to understand that leadership is defined by consistency. Your team looks to you as an example, so your attendance, preparation, and quality of work set the standard for others. In this role, I plan to implement clear plans and timelines for district projects, board meetings, and trustee governor communication. I will also bring intention and strong preparation to every space I am part of. By doing so, I hope to provide a dependable and steady presence that members can trust and look to as a model for their own work.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

The core of my approach is recognizing and adapting to the differences that exist between districts worldwide. While easy to point to examples of successful fundraising, recruitment, or large-scale service, each club operates within a unique context shaped by university culture, engagement levels, and club maturity. These differences require more intentional, flexible, and thoughtful support. To collaborate effectively, I plan to co-develop district-specific strategies alongside the teams implementing them, ensuring they are both realistic and sustainable. Across the club, district, and international levels, I will prioritize consistent presence and communication to build trust and relationships. I aim to create an environment where members feel comfortable sharing their perspectives and know their input is genuinely valued, allowing me to provide support that is meaningful and relevant.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

An initial strategy begins with establishing a clear baseline for each district's membership needs and current capacity. As mentioned previously, different contexts require tailored approaches, so growth plans should reflect the unique realities of each club rather than follow a standardized model. It is equally important to pair membership growth with practical strategies for managing increased club dues, ensuring leaders feel confident expanding without added financial pressure or uncertainty. In addition, I want to support clubs in better leveraging social media for recruitment and engagement. This includes developing consistent posting timelines, sharing adaptable content ideas, and highlighting club impact and culture. Through intentional and engaging content, clubs can position themselves as actionable and impactful spaces on campus.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

What encourages me to pursue the International Board is the scope of impact it allows. Through my experiences at CKI, I have had the opportunity to meet and work alongside driven and thoughtful leaders from a wide range of communities. Supporting them has shaped my confidence, perspective, and understanding of meaningful service. After seven years in the K-Family, this organization has become a second home where I feel genuinely valued. Serving at the international level is an opportunity to give back to that community on a larger scale. I want to support more districts, learn from more leaders, and continue growing through those connections. That broader perspective will allow me to better serve members and strengthen the work we do across Circle K International.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could only accomplish one thing, it would be creating district-specific guides for navigating key parts of the CKI experience, such as club fairs, fundraising, and district conventions. Coming from a smaller Canadian district, I understand how discouraging it can feel to compare your resources or engagement to larger districts. It can be difficult to know where to start or grow in a way that feels achievable.

As a trustee, I don't want any leader to feel that uncertainty. I want to work closely with each district to understand their capacity, resources, and goals, and build guides that reflect their reality. Every club has the ability to create meaningful impact, and my goal is to make that process feel clear, familiar, and attainable.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I have learned a new lesson and skill with each leadership experience and role I take on. Besides the practical skills of event planning, communication, and strategic thinking; what I have learned most is how important these roles and the connection to mentors are for membership growth and engagement. Cultivating our members as leaders will ensure the continuation and stability of our organization. Along with growing our current leaders, developing our network will provide support and insight for future leaders. We must continue to invest in our members as leaders to ensure the strength of CKI.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

I want to show up in this role authentically and to connect deeply with individuals on the club, district, and international level. I believe an integral aspect of my role as trustee is to give members, regardless of their position in CKI, a hand up. This would look like providing, creating, and educating members on resources, listening to and acting on their needs, and completing tasks within committee work that helps with the stability and growth of CKI. I want to support members in a way that works for them. Balancing CKI with school, other clubs, and work is burdensome; I want to show up in a way that allows the individuals I work with to connect with me when and how they need.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

Growth on the international level is built upon every individual member. Cultivating the abilities of our leaders and providing our officers with the tools to help engage their members will be crucial to the growth of membership. We have a lot of wonderful tools and programs, like the First-Year Ambassadors program, that can be further developed to help engage members at the start of their journey. I believe that connecting new members with the entirety of CKI through direct international communication, such as a trustee newsletter for new members within district pairings, would be a great way to educate and engage new members. Developing our membership network will help our members learn and grow from one another, contributing to the growth of our organization.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

I have learned so much from charting and being president of my home club and being District Governor. I want to see the continued growth and stability of our organization which is why I want to bring these lessons and help the new class of leaders that are stepping up this year. I believe that being a trustee is the perfect position for me to give others the ability to step up and lead in my home club and district while still being connected to CKI in a way that lets me assist them in their leadership journey.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

I am here today because of all of the people before me that stepped up as leaders and helped develop my skills. I would be satisfied with my term as trustee if I could help strengthen the leadership skills of the officers I work closest with. The skills and lessons I impart on another are something that can be passed down year after year and will help membership growth, engagement, and retention. I want to help inspire the leaders that follow me so they can continue to stabilize and grow our organization well after my time in CKI. As a trustee, I don't want any leader to feel that uncertainty. I want to work closely with each district to understand their capacity, resources, and goals, and build guides that reflect their reality. Every club has the ability to create meaningful impact, and my goal is to make that process feel clear, familiar, and attainable.

Serving in leadership roles has taught me the importance of being humble enough to listening to your exec members, adapting to challenges, and leading with purpose. Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

My experiences as Club President, District Committee Chair, and International Committee Member have allowed me to experience Circle K from multiple perspectives, both as a leader and as a member. My roles as President and Committee Chair taught me how to rely on others, delegate effectively, and trust the people around me. My time on the Membership and Engagement Committee showed me how to adapt to different leadership styles and collaborate within a group dynamic. Each of these experiences taught me something different about leadership, which has shaped how I listen and lead. It is these lessons that I look forward to bringing with me into the role of International Trustee.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

As International Trustee, I would lead through collaboration and genuine relationship-building at every level. At the club level, I would maintain open communication, listen to members' needs, and connect them with resources to strengthen their impact. At the district level, I would support District Governors and their boards by supporting membership growth, strengthening retention, and promoting leadership development. At the international level, I would bring these perspectives into board discussions, advocating thoughtfully for our membership. Across all levels, my main goal is to empower our members and leaders to be the best they can be.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

I would utilize our connections to each other to drive membership growth. By creating a space for Districts to share ideas, goals, and strategies with each other, we cultivate communication and collaboration within our organization. Through this consistent, open communication across Districts, we can collectively identify our strengths to utilize and weaknesses to improve upon. This type of collaboration will allow us to develop sustainable, adaptable, and member-focused strategies for retaining current members and attracting new ones. Together, we can combine our ideas and create action that supports every aspect of CKI.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

Being part of the Kiwanis family for the past 8 years has taken me on a journey of service and leadership. My CKI journey started with chartering the CKI Club at Merrimack College, where I received incredible support from my District and from International. That support meant everything, and I knew I wanted to grow as a leader so I could give that same experience to others. Serving as Club President, District Events Chair, and on the Membership Development and Education Committee grew my leadership skills and deepened my love for this organization. I'm running for International Trustee because I want to share my passion for CKI as widely as possible, and this role feels like the greatest opportunity I have to do exactly that.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could only accomplish one thing during my term, it would be bringing our Districts closer together. I know membership is one of our biggest struggles as an organization, and while there's no single fix, I truly believe we can make real progress by simply working together more intentionally. Every District has something valuable to offer, whether that's a creative recruitment strategy, a successful retention program, or just a fresh perspective. When we create space for Districts to share their goals, challenges, and ideas with one another, we start building something stronger together.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

As district secretary, I worked closely with my governor over the past year and learned the stressors that governors and district boards as a whole can experience. These experiences have helped me understand that governors and boards benefit from planning resources, an open channel of communication with an international representative, and answers to any questions they may have, among other needs. Additionally, in my time as a club president, I have learned many of the struggles presidents are experiencing at a local club level. Because of these experiences, I have both heard and come up with many solutions to common club issues, and would be happy to provide this advice to anyone who needs it.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

On the club level, I have lots of advice from my own experiences, as well as resources, that I can provide to club officers. Additionally, I am open to meet with club officers during my office hours or scheduled meetings to address any challenges they may be facing. I am also willing to meet with district board members in order to help with planning, goal setting, chartering technicalities, or any other topics that the board members may need. I also plan to provide planning resources such as goal-setting documents, schedule templates, and more. On the international level, I plan to work with my peers to ensure the wellbeing of Circle K International as an organization, and to support the president and vice president in any way they may request.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

In addition to meeting with the clubs and district boards in my districts, I will work to make systematic changes by working with Kiwanis in order to protect CKI's targeted audience for recruitment. I also hope to collaborate with Key Club to help form a pathway from Key Club graduates to CKI in a way that is universally established. Additionally, I plan to create more recruitment resources, tips, and ideas that clubs across Circle K International can use.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

I would love to serve on the International Board. I have spent lots of time making change on a local level, but being on a district board made me realize the impact I can have on a larger level. I want to spread as much good in the world as possible, and serving on the International Board feels like the natural next step in my mission to make the world a better place.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could only accomplish one thing during my term, I would establish a better communication pathway between International and the clubs and districts that make Circle K International so incredible. I think more contact between Trustees and their districts and clubs would greatly benefit everyone through sharing knowledge, ideas, tips, and even through the feeling of connection to a larger community.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

"Consistency" is one of the most important lessons I've learned from my leadership experience. And it has become one of my most effective tools as a leader. As club president, consistency took the shape of being present for members, maintaining open communication, supporting officers, connecting them to leadership opportunities, and, most importantly, building a strong community. In my roles within my division as executive assistant and on the district level as the member recognition chair, consistency also meant hosting office hours for one-on-one meetings. Prioritizing our members first, as International Trustee, I plan to apply this by maintaining regular communication, engaging actively, and demonstrating strong follow-through across all levels of Circle K. This is because at every level of leadership, consistency is what builds trust.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Increasing membership from 17 to 38 as club president, with an increase in the number of members recognized at District Convention, required strong decisiveness. As an International Trustee overseeing districts with complex and independent needs, and collaborating with Kiwanis and other CKI leaders, the same decisiveness will be applied. By making critical decisions with members' needs in mind and following through on those decisions. By consistently using the communication methods from quarterly check-ins and extensive outreach, I will be able to understand district needs and develop an actionable plan. This approach allows me to not only identify areas for growth but also implement structured plans that strengthen connections across Circle K.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

To support a diverse international membership base, resources must be flexible and adaptable. What works for one district may not work for another, recognizing geographical and cultural differences, especially for provisional or developing districts. The international board can support growth by strengthening communication and empowering club leadership first. This can be done through Inter-district president council meetings, district executive group chats, and newsletters to keep members informed and connected. These efforts help raise awareness of opportunities such as scholarships, leadership roles, and fellowship events that support long-term growth and sustainability. Utilizing numerous communication methods and platforms to connect leads and general members strengthens our diverse membership into one coherent organization.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

Circle K has truly shaped my college life and who I am as a person. To be able to serve the people in need within my community, and create lifelong friends along the process is a privilege. Thus, I naturally rise up to the challenge and leadership roles to maintain this organization so that someone in the future is able to have a similar experience as I have. As an international trustee, I am excited to be able to apply what I have learned from other influential leaders and to provide a platform where members across all districts are able to thrive.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

One item to accomplish as an international trustee will be the outreach to under-charter strength clubs, newly chartered clubs, and provisional districts in order to build unity. Progression without unity leads to imbalance and fragmentation. If only a few strong clubs were to lead with no unity among the smaller clubs, club organizations would fall apart and be disarrayed. Including all members from around the globe, the organization's accessibility to provisional members, and providing a fair and equal opportunity for all. Advocating for scholarships, working alongside committees, and reaching out to provisional districts are a few examples of the steps that can accomplish this task and to maintain CKI into the future. And with this unification, Circle K can thrive and empower future leaders.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Attending a new high school of nearly 3,000 students, I joined Key Club hoping to make friends and have a positive impact, however small. Little did I know, I would be able to foster such meaningful connections and a lifelong passion for service. I went on to serve as Club President and received a Distinguished Award. Upon attending college, joining the CKI family was one of the first things I did. I am grateful to have served as President of the New England District e-Club and as District Governor. I was able to FIND A FAMILY thanks to Key Club and CKI, underscoring for me the importance of belonging. As International Trustee, I plan to implement this lesson into every aspect of my work.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

With no CKI club at Harvard, it was through a personal, happily unexpected phone call from our International President that I found our home club. Since then, he has become a true friend, mentor, and inspiration. Experiences like this shape my approach to collaboration: BUILDING GENUINE, PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS across all branches. To support members, I will work closely with governors to identify district strengths and weaknesses at the start. I will build personal relationships through biweekly check-ins with members at all CKI levels, active involvement in district/club events and board meetings, and encourage connection within the broader international network. When our secretary-treasurer stepped down, I prioritized supporting both her and her successor as people first, because effective collaboration is rooted in empathy and trust.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

Serving as District Governor has given me a unique vantage point into both club-level needs and international priorities, showing me that transparency and communication across all levels of CKI are key. For example, if one district brings 50 attendees to DCON, SHARING this number can BUILD MOMENTUM AND MOTIVATION for another district that might only have 30 registrants. Beyond DCON, I plan to strengthen other membership benefits through programs like the Tomorrow Fund and scholarships. Emphasizing these benefits can help bridge the gap between the number of members who attend CKI meetings and those who ACTUALLY PAY DUES. Finally, I am committed to fostering global inclusion, building on successes like welcoming a new charter to New England this year and expanding that growth internationally.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

This year, as part of my Governor's Project, I hosted a service event over the summer. Even though members were scattered across the country for break, we came together in person at the Boston Public Library and virtually on Zoom to make heartfelt cards for seniors nationwide. It was a powerful reminder that, NO MATTER THE DISTANCE, OUR COMMITMENT TO SERVICE AND CONNECTION REMAINS STRONG. Going beyond the club or district-level, serving as International Trustee offers the unique opportunity to support and connect members on a global scale. Supporting clubs around the world enriches the CKI network, strengthens membership numbers, and brings unique service opportunities to all volunteers. I am looking forward to helping CKI live up to its mission as a truly international organization.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

My goal as International Trustee would be to connect with as many members as possible, not just those on the international or district boards, but all members who make up the heart of CKI. Each volunteer is truly the lifeblood of this organization and brings unique energy and ideas. By listening to their experiences, understanding their challenges, and celebrating their successes, I hope to ensure that every voice is heard and valued. Building these connections would inspire collaboration, foster inclusivity, and help guide decisions that reflect the real needs and passions of our members.

Question #1: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

Through serving in several positions across the club and district board, I have used my time in each position to really figure out how each part of a CKI board works. Through leading my club I have learned how to navigate a board through many challenges, finding new ways to bring members into the organization. Through leading my district I learned the many ways clubs can operate and how to make decisions that factor in different perspectives from each club. In this past year, I have seen how that reflects up to the international level with districts having many of their own traditions or strategies to keep growing. I want to highlight our diversity as districts, fostering an environment to share ideas, uplifting each other.

Question #2: What have you learned from your previous experiences that you plan to implement in this role?

In serving my districts I plan to make connections with more than just my District Governors. I will hold bi-monthly socials in which I will encourage any and all members to attend, whether they are from the club, district, or international level. Some of these socials will involve service projects while others may be informational workshop-style events. All of them will include fellowship in the form of a fun game or activity to connect with each other. I will also make myself available for calls with any members within my districts to talk about any ideas or problems. I want to show all members that the international level is an accessible support system which clubs can utilize.

Question #3: What strategies would you use to encourage sustainability and membership growth at the international level?

Sustainability and Membership growth at the International level starts with the clubs. To increase recruitment I want to help clubs to utilize all three tenants into meetings and events to show that our organization is more than just service. I will host round table discussions and Sistrict workshops to share ideas that have worked. By showing the many opportunities that we provide through these tenants, our clubs stand out among the several service clubs on campus. I also believe that CKI has a truly unique community where at each level, our members and leaders have a way of making everyone feel welcome and supported. To increase retention, I would encourage leaders to continue fostering that environment and reach out to build relationships with new members.

Question #4: What encourages you to pursue serving on the International Board, as opposed to a club or district-level position?

In the past several years, I have served in many positions on the club and district boards. As I have moved from position to position, I have always continued to check on my successors and support their term. I find it rewarding to offer advice and help others navigate situations that I found myself in when serving their position. As I served as district governor this past year, one of my favorite parts of the role was meeting other district governors and learning about how different districts operate. After completing my term, I hope to use my final year in CKI to bring what I have learned to other districts and help governors after me navigate the role that I have grown so much in.

Question #5: If you could only accomplish one thing during your term, what would it be and why?

If I could only accomplish one thing during my term, my top priority would be for my districts to feel supported and connected to each other so I can leave them stronger than I found them. Throughout my time in CKI, I have gained so much from this organization and it's all because of the connections I have made with the people involved. Through Sistrict socials and frequent check in's with support, I want my districts to become more involved with each other and the international level. It is through continued outreach and engagement that we can support each other and grow our organization.
